

LUNCHTIME WEBINARS

The Faith and Culture Network is hosting a series of lunchtime webinars. These sessions are designed to raise awareness and share knowledge on how we can better support faith and culture within the Developmental Services sector.

THE UNIVERSALITY OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

October 21, 2025, at 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

The principles of Catholic Social Teaching are rooted in universal values that speak to the dignity of every person and the common good. These values resonate not only with Catholics but also with people of diverse traditions and perspectives.

Keith Dow, PhD, is a Canadian theologian, researcher, and writer exploring the beauty and complexity of human limits, care, and community. He works with Karis Disability Services (formerly Christian Horizons) and serves as a fellow with the Psychology Cross-Training for Theologians program through the University of Birmingham and Martin Luther University College. His research explores theology, disability, and the ethics of care, emphasizing the beauty and limits of human life in community. Keith is the author of Formed Together: Mystery, Narrative, and Virtue in Christian Caregiving (Baylor, 2021) and leads the Images of God research project supported by the John Templeton Foundation.

The Images of God Project is a deeply reflective and creative initiative that explores how people with intellectual and developmental disabilities perceive and represent God and themselves.
